PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY

The "Win One" class of the Methodist Sunday school met at the parsonage Tuesday evening and went to two homes where there was sickness and left a good substantial Thanksgiving dinner.

The class returned to the parsonage and had a jolly time playing games. This is a splendid group of young people and belief in a practical Christianity.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sabbath morning at 9:45 the Sabbath School will meet. We expect every teacher, officer and scholar to do their duty and be in their place Sabbath morning.

11:00. The Rev. Caldwell's subject will be, "Prayer is a God Given Evidence of a Change of Heart and Life." 7:30. The subject will be, "Three Evidences of Spiritual Beauty."

We invite everybody who does not attend any other church to come and worship with us and we earnestly desire that parents and guardians bring their children with them to church. Come in the spirit of prayer.

Eight Children Had Croup

"I have eight children and give Foley's Honey and Tar to all of them," writes Mrs. P. Rehkamp, 2404 Herman St., Covington, Ky.; "they all were subject to croup." It loosens mucus and phlegm, stops that strangling cough, makes easy breathing possible and permits quiet sleep. Contains no opiates. Children like it. For sale by Sands Dorsey Drug Company.

SEAL SALE MONEY
SPENT IN STATE
BY RELIABLE MEN

MONEY SPENT IN STATE BY DIRECTORS OF NEW MEXICO PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION.

Contrary to the general belief, the money received from the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals and Health Bonds does not go to some organization outside New Mexico, but 91 per cent of it is spent within the state under the supervision of the officers and directors of the New Mexico Public Health Association. In the list of seventy directors and officers are included prominent citizens from all parts of the state whose honesty and ability are universally recognized.

Governor O. A. Larrazolo is an honorary vice president of the association. Lieutenant Governor Benj. F. Pankey, "Honest Uncle Ben," is chairman of the state committee. Holm O. Bursum, Socorro stockman, is president of the association. Nathan Jaffa, president of the board of regents of the state university and prominent business man of Roswell, is treasurer. These men have signed the health bonds as their endorsement of the campaign of December 1st to 10th.

The three active vice presidents are W. D. Murray, Silver City banker; Col. Bronson M. Cutting, owner of the Santa Fe New Mexican and donor of the new gymnasium at the Roswell Military Institute, and Dr. O. T. Hyde, medical director of St. Joseph's Hospital at Albuquerque. Dr. F. N. Carrier of Santa Rita is secretary of the association, with Mrs. T. G. Rogers of Las Vegas as assistant.

On the board of directors are such men as Dr. David Ross Boyd, former president of the state university; Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts of the Las Vegas Normal; Jonathan H. Wagner, state superintendent of public instruction; H. J. Hagerman of the State Taxpayers' Association; W. E. Lindsey of Portales, Eduardo M. Otero, Paul G. Redington, Chas. Springer, Albert Catfish, President A. D. Ortle, C. N. Cotton, Felix Garcia, Gherson Gaudoff, Antonio Lucero, Dr. C. E. Waller, Hugh H. Williams, Archbishop Daeger, Geo. L. Urick and Powhatan Carter.

PANKEY WOULD HAVE HEALTH CHRISTMAS

Chairman of State Seal Sale Committee Would Give Humans as Much Protection as Cattle.

"Let's make this a health Christmas," says Lieutenant Governor B. F. Pankey, state chairman of the Red Cross Christmas Seal Sale Committee. Here is the way the chairman looks at it:

"In 1917, we had a war Christmas; in 1918, we had a peace Christmas. Isn't it time now to begin considering health? The war taught us how important health is in the life of any nation. It showed us also that one-third of our young men in the prime of their life were unfit for military service. The same percentage probably applies to health among women and girls. Let's change this and give every boy and girl a fair start in life. Sheep Levy Five Mills.

"In the cattle business I have found that it is economy to spend 50 cents a head looking after the health of my steers. I don't see why we shouldn't spend as much for ourselves. They tell me a human life is worth $20,000. I think it's worth much more, but even at that low figure a mill levy on 400,000 people would produce $400,000 annually. That isn't a big levy. The levy on cattle is one mill; on sheep and goats, five mills; on hogs, three and a half mills. Surely one mill isn't too much for human beings.

"The Christmas seal sale isn't for $500,000. It's way below one mill. It's only $500,000 in New Mexico. Paint your town red with Red Cross Christmas seals. Each one is a penny's worth of prevention and cure. Buy seals liberally. Make this a health Christmas."

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

Holly, mistletoe and Red Cross Christmas Seals.
